

Riversdale Fine Wines

Riversdale Fine Wines has been devoted to Australian wine for over 30 years, founded in Australia's cosmopolitan and culinary capital, Melbourne. At Riversdale Fine Wines, we believe it is our commitment to professionalism that drives quality and value for our customers.

Our focus is on only the finest wineries, from Australia's premier wine growing regions. We believe that cooperation and mutual benefit are the backbone to success. It is this attitude that has ensured our relationships with more than 20 of Australia's 5-star rated wineries have flourished over the long term.

Our team firmly believes that professionalism creates value. We leverage our industry connections alongside a carefully selected portfolio of Australia's finest wines to satisfy even our most discerning customers' needs.

Our selection includes James Halliday's 2016 Winery of the Year, "Tahbilk" as well as the 2007 Winery of the Year, "Paringa Estate". Alongside these award winning offerings, we represent array of exquisite wineries, such as Stanton & Killeen Wines, Bellarmine Wines, Domaine Naturaliste , Moppity Wines, Merindoc Vintners, Murray Street Vineyard and Patrick of Coonawarra.

Riversdale currently invests in a portfolio of Victorian and South-Australian vineyards and production bases. Thanks to our Industrial Chain layout and global network, we are the industry leader in supply chain logistics and quality management.

It is our customers' needs that drive us at Riversdale Fine Wines. Hence, we undertake detailed analyses of the major production areas to optimize our purchasing, regarding both quality and price. It is this business-wide commitment to professionalism and quality that allows us to add value for and to our customers. In an apt demonstration of this commitment, we have opened a Market Management office in Shanghai to provide maximum sales support without delay.
